On Saturday, Feb 24, 2018 from 1 pm to 3 pm an “Open-to- the–Public” event will be held at the Suffolk University Sargent Hall, 120 Tremont St Boston. “PURITAN LESSONS on CIVIL DIALOGUE” is Co-Sponsored by the History Department of Suffolk University and the National Society of Colonial Dames in America-Massachusetts Society, the Partnership of Historic Bostons; New England Beginnings and others.

How did Puritans bridge the various opinions and views of many of their community to make unity in purpose and building and caring for the larger community?

What were their special secrets or bases for bringing civil civic dialogue to a constructive conclusion?

How did they get all the people working together for the security and well-being of all?

Colonial History Professor Robert Allison, of Suffolk University and Political Science and Economics Professor Dale Kuehne of St Anselm’s College, NH, will lead the discussion with opportunity for input from other Boston Neighbor organizations: 2 Historic churches, the Athenaeum; NH, RI and Massachusetts Dames, and others. A 17th century display of costumes hand-sewn by a young Massachusetts Dame, Ruby-Grace Miller will also be on display.
